

The 8th Annual Snowy Mountains Regional Food Fair at Dalgety

Saturday, 11th October 2008
Dalgety Showground

The Snowy Mountains Regional Food Fair is an annual feast of food, wine and entertainment on the banks of the Snowy River, at Dalgety.

Come and meet producers and caterers from all over the South East presenting their fine fare, and cooking up a storm to ensure that there are plenty of tasty treats for visitors on the day and to take home.

Organic pork, goats cheese, chilli products, olive producers, gourmet condiments, cookies, lavender, local and organic wines, organic herbs, fruit & vegetables, soaps, free range eggs, smoked trout, honey, gourmet sausages, dips & mezza, local seeds, home-made ice creams and so much more...

'The Best in a Jar' Competition Who makes the best produce in a jar?

Any member of the public can submit an entry for 'The Best in a Jar' competition—presenting the best produce our local cooks can put in a jar. Entries are strictly limited to South East producers and cooks only. See www.snowyfoodfair.com.au for details or just turn up with your own special jar on the day. Winners are featured online and in Sustain magazine.

Stall Holders for the Snowy Mountains Regional Food Fair should be quick to secure the best position
